AUTOMOBILE COURSE, ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 4.—Ten thousand spectators are huddled under umbrellaalong the beach track to see the first automobile race of the day, scheduled as a speeding event between Campbell, Christic and Ford. The tide had not fallen to the point desired by the officials, but there was enough space to allow the racers to course along a fine stretch of smooth strand.

The officials announced they would carry the oard of events through in some of the rain. spite of the rain.

Rain set in shortly after 2 o'clock, but did not deter the crowd, which taxed the trolleys to their capacity and promised to oring the attendance to 20,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Negon's last Sunday at the Colma draining quarters was made notable by the record-breaking crowd that attended the free exhibition given by the "Tertible Dane."

The man who wants to get the lead over Britt in builling the real estate market seems likely to land in the ring in condition to give the plumber a race in condition to give the plumber a race for the realty holding championship. It is said Hegewisch is outside the street sprinkling zone of Chicago and this is the reason the dust down Colma way has no: impaired his wind. The people that braved the trip landed there looking like ash bins.
